COURT: Proceed, Mr. Pfeiffer, the answer is no.

Q Miss Mills, what paper was it who gave your father $500 for the letters?

A I don't know.

Q Your answer is you don't know?

A I don't know what paper.

Q You said that you understood your mother and Dr. Hall had a place in Dr. Hall's study where letters were placed in a book, I think you said?

A Yes.

Q Was that in Dr. Hall's study in the church or in Dr. Hall's house?

A In Dr. Hall's study in the church.

Q In Dr. Hall's study in the church. Do you know of your own knowledge only, of any letters written by your mother to Dr. Hall, or letters written by Dr. Hall to your mother which were in the Hall house, - of your knowledge do you know anything about such letters?

A My mother told me that there were.

Q Of your own knowledge? A No.

Q I see, your mother told you about that?

A My mother told me.

Q Shortly after the discovery of the bodies of your mother and Dr. Hall, is it not the fact that Mrs. Hall wrote you a letter of sympathy, Miss Mills? A Yes.
